

Hey!

I'm Anzhelika from Belarus!

I love programming, as well as running, reading books and learning new things!

Feel free to get in touch or take a look at my past work below.

In 2019, I entered the Minsk College of Business.

In the second year of study, I studied higher mathematics and the programming language C++, Python.

In the third year we studied C#, CSS, JS, jQuery, SQL.
